

Following is the format of the Intern Pharmacist Test paper

- Total marks: 100
- Total Time : 90 minutes
- Type of questions: MCQs

The test paper consists of following sections:

Subject	Marks/100
Pharmaceutics	10
Pharmacology	30
Microbiology	15
Physiology and pathology	05
Pharmacy Practice	10
Case Histories/Pharmaceutical Compounding	15
English Proficiency	10
General Knowledge & Analytical Reasoning	05

The pattern of the questions is as follows:

Please mark the correct answer:

1. What are the two major routes of drug administration?

- a. Sublingual and trans-dermal
- b. Intravenous and intra-muscular
- c. Enteral and Parenteral

2. Antidote of Morphine is:

- a. Naloxone
- b. Halofan
- c. Nitroprusside

3. The "Inscription" part of the prescription usually contains the following information:

- a. Names and quantities of the ingredients or drugs.
- b. Symbol R or Rx
- c. Gives the directions to be marked on the bottle, vial, or container
- d. The directions for compounding or mixing the drug.

4. How many "mg" of Magnesium will be required to prepare 60ml of 20% solution?

- a. 12000
- b. 12
- c. 1.2

5. Vancomycin is used to treat:

- a. Methicillin Resistant Staphylococcus aureus
- b. Aspergillosis
- c. E.coli sepsis

6. Which of the following disease affects bones?

- a. Osteomyelitis
- b. Encephalitis
- c. Pericarditis

7. How many miles high is Mount Everest?

- a. 8.846 Miles
- b. 7.846 Miles
- c. 9.846 Miles